

WELCOME TO OMAHA

This bag includes some goodies to curb your hunger for salty snacks, keep you hydrated, maybe help you fill some idle time, and tame your sweet tooth. Sorry.

Our basic plan:

Gather at Cedar Street for food, drink, stories, games and time together.
Come by Cedar Street anytime and feel free to let yourself in through the garage or through the back yard.

10814 Cedar St, Omaha 68144.

Happy hour will likely start by 5:00.

Dinners will likely start around 6:30.

We haven't figured out lunches yet – we can discuss on Thursday night.

GROUP PHOTO – Friday night at Cedar Street between 5:00 and 6:00 sometime.

We'll take another Saturday just in case some of us missed the curtain call.

MONEYS – We'll tally up the food and drink for the weekend then divide by parent age people and # of their nights in town. We'll settle up a week or two after. That's likely the cleanest and fairest way to divvy up moneys. Cool?

SCHEDULE:

Thursday, June 4

AM travel day, settle in at Marriott

6:00 PM FOOD TRUCK in driveway at Cedar Street.

Cheesesteaks, burger sliders, chicken sliders, mac n cheese, salad, etc.

Airing of grievances around the fire pit.

Disclaimer: The reunion committee assumes no responsibility for wrong turns, bad decisions, or anyone getting hopelessly lost during the strenuous 2-mile journey between the hotel and Cedar Street headquarters.

Legal Disclaimer: By attending this reunion, you acknowledge that the organizers are not liable for poor navigation skills, questionable eating and drinking choices, or injuries sustained from overconfident storytelling.

Official Reunion Disclaimer: Attendance may result in excessive happiness, the urge to hug your “long lost” relative, receiving unsolicited life advice, and a renewed suspicion that this family should do this kind of thing more often.

Emergency Instructions: If separated from the group, remain calm. Someone will eventually notice you're missing. Probably.
